To Whom it May Concern,

Re: Reference Letter for Fatemeh Vazirian – Global Talent Visa Application

I am writing to provide my strongest endorsement of Fatemeh Vazirian in support of their application for a Global Talent visa. As Managing Director at All About Languages, I have had the privilege of working with Fatemeh for 8 months in my capacity as her manager. I can attest without reservation that Fatemeh represents talent in the field of interpreting and communication.

Fatemeh is a dedicated Interpreter working in the language pair English – Persian with particular experience in medical Interpreting. Over the course of our professional relationship, I have observed Fatemeh to be professional, dedicated and enthusiastic in providing language communication support.

Her command of Persian and English language extends far beyond fluency. Fatemeh has developed her understanding of medical terminology, healthcare system in Australia and familiarised herself with idiomatic expressions. This experience learned on the job broadens Fatemeh's communication skills and working with a diverse range of people and cultures.

Fatemeh exemplifies the highest ethical standards set by the Australian Institute of Interpreters and Translators, maintaining strict confidentiality and impartiality in all circumstances. She demonstrates exceptional professionalism in sensitive medical consultations, skillfully navigating culturally taboo topics whilst ensuring respectful communication. Her ability to adapt and problem-solve in high-pressure situations reflects her maturity and cognitive agility as an interpreter.

I am confident that Fatemeh will continue to make exceptional contributions to the Interpreting profession and society more broadly. Her skills are particularly valuable in multicultural Australia, where effective cross-cultural communication enables diverse communities to function effectively and fosters mutual understanding across linguistic and cultural boundaries.

I provide my highest recommendation for Fatemeh Vazirian's Global Talent visa application without hesitation. She possesses exceptional and proven talent as an interpreter, demonstrated through her professional work and sustained impact in the field. I am confident her presence in Australia will benefit both the interpreting profession and the broader community.
